

ADULT FAITH FORMATION—FAQs

Why do Catholics mark their forehead, lips and heart before the reading of the Gospel?

When the Gospel is about to be read, the priest says: ‘A Reading from the Gospel according to St. ____.’ The congregation then responds, ‘Glory to You Oh Lord,’ making a small cross with their thumb over their forehead, lips, and heart.

The reason for making a cross during this period of the Mass is to highlight the importance of the Word of God we are about to hear. We make a cross on our forehead to indicate we believe the Gospel. The cross on our lips is to indicate that we profess the words of the Gospel and the cross over our hearts is to indicate we love the word of God.

Why do Catholics bow during the recitation of the Creed?

The Nicene Creed is the profession of what we believe as Catholics.

You begin the bow at the words “by the power of the Holy Spirit he was born of the Virgin Mary,” and rise once you have said “and became man.” A “profound bow” is a bow at the waist, in the manner of the Japanese when they greet people.

The reason we bow at that point in the Creed is because it is when we express our belief in the most fundamental mystery of Christianity: That in Jesus Christ, God actually became man, born of a woman by the power of the Holy Spirit. This is the Incarnation, the most sacred moment in all of human history. Therefore, we bow in honor of that event.

OFFICE OF VOCATIONS

A PRAYER FOR CHRISTMAS

Child of Bethlehem, grant that we may share with all our hearts in this profound mystery of Christmas, put into our hearts this peace for which we sometimes seek so desperately and which you alone can give us.

Help us know one another better, and live as brothers and sisters, children of the same Father.

Reveal to us also your beauty, holiness and purity.

Awaken in our hearts love and gratitude for your infinite goodness.

Join us all together in your love, and give us your heavenly peace.
Amen.

On the mission of the Church...

“The parish is the presence of the Church in a given territory, an environment for hearing God’s word, for growth in the Christian life, for dialogue, proclamation, charitable outreach, worship and celebration. In all its activities the parish encourages and trains its members to be evangelisers. It is a community of communities, a sanctuary where the thirsty come to drink in the midst of their journey, and a centre of constant missionary outreach... to make them environments of living communion and participation, and to make them completely mission-oriented.”

From Pope Francis’ Evangelii Gaudium

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that, as we are bathed in the new radiance of your incarnate Word, the light of faith, which illumines our minds, may also shine through in our deeds. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
